Dear Xijia Ye,

We are pleased and happy to inform you that your demo paper "355: iCoLoc: An Interactive System for Spatial Co-location Pattern Mining via LLM-Guided Intent and Contrastive Preference Learning" has been accepted at APWeb-WAIM 2026 (The 10th APWeb-WAIM International Joint Conference on Web and Big Data) and will be included in the proceedings. Congratulations.

Each paper was reviewed by at least three people (reviewers and meta-reviewers). The final decision was made by the PC co-chairs based on several criteria, including but not limited to relevance of the topic, broad interest in the research areas, balance of the different research areas and communities, and the scores and opinions of the reviewers.

To view your final reviews, please visit the APWeb-WAIM 2026 Microsoft CMT website (<https://cmt3.research.microsoft.com/APWebWAIM2026/>).

The camera-ready submission guidelines are now available here: <https://conferences.sigappfr.org/apweb2026/camera-ready-guidelines/>.

Please prepare it accordingly. Camera-ready is limited to 4 pages and expected before July 6th, 2026.

Also, please note the following registration requirements:

1. At least one author of each accepted paper must register at the regular full rate. Student registrations do not cover paper publication.
 2. Authors with multiple accepted papers are required to pay the full registration fee for each paper.
 3. Payment must be received by July 6th, 2026, to ensure your paper is included in the conference proceedings.
- For registration guidelines and the registration link, please visit: <https://conferences.sigappfr.org/apweb2026/registration-fees/>

For invitation letters (regarding the Vietnamese Visa), please send an email to Dr. Le Thi My Hanh (hanhltm13@fe.edu.vn).

Looking forward to seeing you at APWeb-WAIM 2026 in Danang-Vietnam, September 7-9, 2026.

Best regards
APWeb-WAIM 2026 PC Co-chairs
